FACULTY

Do you have to thrust your hand into the fire to know that it burns, to hurl yourself from the twentieth story of the Empire State Building to prove Newton's law of gravitation, or to step into the path of an onrushing automobile to determine that it can knock you down? Likewise would you think it necessary to live behind the Iron Curtain to ascertain the evils of Communism? Your answer to all these questions would be, "No, I have seen people burned by fire, killed by falling, and injured by automobiles. I have also encountered the brainwashed, impoverished, and emaciated escapees from Communist dominated countries."

You will, I am sure, agree that knowledge is acquired by accepting well established facts as well as firsthand testing. Furthermore, there are some things in this life we do not have to prove but which we accept by faith.

Emily Dickinson has well expressed my sentiments in the following short poem:

I never say a moor,
  I never saw the sea;
Yet know I how the heather looks,
  And what a wave must be.

I never spoke with God,
  Nor visited in heaven;
Yet certain am I of the spot
  As if the chart were given.

Your friend,
Larry I. Walden

Charles O. Carlise, former Dean of Boys, now Assistant Principal, has not relinquished his close contact with PBSHS students and their activities. He still appears on campus, and elsewhere, often causing a chuckle or two with his gruff humor. Most of us at Pompano feel that things just would not be the same without him.

CLASSES

Bobbie Gray, Judy Kuc, Betsy Sandstrom, and Judy Jackson.

Senior Class Officers Have Sailed A Straight Course

As we, the Senior Class of 1962, cast a backward glance upon our experiences of the past three years, we realize that they have indeed been worthwhile.

As Sophomores we were bewildered and frightened by the maze of corridors and the throng of unfamiliar faces. Nevertheless it did not take us long to enter into the active life at P. B. S. H. S. With all the zeal and enthusiasm typical of those beginning a new adventure, we supported successfully such activities as the candy sale and the first Sophomore Prom.

The Junior year was really a preparatory year, for we were constantly busy with school work and extracurricular activities. We found ourselves looking forward to our big year—the year when we ourselves would set the tone and pattern for life at our school. Special events for our Junior year were the class play, the magazine drive and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Today we are Seniors, the doers, not the onlookers, the leaders, not the followers. A smile crosses our faces as we recall the Senior play, "Majority of One," the Senior Tea, our many Senior privileges and the fun at the prom . . . sternly, we remember applications for college and scholarships, and the intense studying for college boards. Now it is all over, the doors of Pompano are closing behind us, pushing us out to the great, wide world. We are prepared now to go our different directions taking with us the untarnished memories of Pompano Beach Senior High.

"You say you're all alone in the world. Mr. Gibbs?"

Button, button who's got the button? Marianne Schmidt certainly hasn't as Keith Lauderbaugh and Sandy Mauger point out.

Color Day was enlivened by the choosing of Mr. and Miss Blue and Gold, Bobbie Gray and Kenny Williams.

Man on the street reporter, Rick Milne, talks with Candy "Sugar-Pops" Northway and Barbara "Blondie" Link.

A wild cheering section helped step-up pep for Homecoming.

Numerous Activities

The bonfire, followed by the snake dance, added much fun to an exciting Homecoming Week.

Whisper Day quickly changed from vibrant silence to explosive cheering as the Band and the Cheer Leaders led the school song.

Irving Van Huss, Bob Snyder, and Ronny Smoak put their brand on a Maverick Mustang.

Tri-captains Gerald Moerner, Tom Dorman, and Bill Fackler with team Sponsors Mary Ann Ziccardi and Mary Lou Sandke.

Sentimental Centennial

The Junior-Senior Prom, an impressive event, was enjoyed by all. The evening of April 21, 1961, began with the music of Don Rose and his Orchestra from Miami. Everyone attending was enchanted by the music and atmosphere of the Old South. The Prom king, Bruce MacLane, and Prom Queen, Babs Beville, reigned over the evening's festivities which also included a movie after the dance.

The radiant candidates include: Rod Caborn, Toni Badagliacco, Jim Valier, Bruce MacLane, Sandy Rees, Babs Beville, Joan Le Chot, and Johnny Olkoski. (not pictured)

The Blue and the Gray colors were united in the decorations of the Gymnatorium.

The lobby of the Gym was disguised as a flower garden.

"Congratulations, Mrs. Creech," says Class President, Peggy McClure.

Fred Burke, and Keith Lauderbaugh, among others worked hard to create a beautiful effect.

"Majority of One"

Mr. Asano's intentions are questioned by Jerry Black.

The Pompano Beach Senior High Band became definitely established as one of the very best in Florida at the State Contest last May where they were one of only four bands in the state judged "Superior" from all judges in concert, marching, and sight reading. This marked the third year in Class "A" that the band has received straight Superiors and continues a perfect record once the band has moved into Class "A." The band also has a perfect record of straight Superior ratings in District Contests for the past nine years. This year, the band will again compete in Class "A" and hopes to maintain their perfect record in the class since it will be the last year in "A" before moving up to the highest classification of "AA" next year.

The "Marching Tornadoes" aided by the talented majorette corps had another very successful marching season as they presented beautiful and exciting halftime shows with precision drills and themes such as: "Our Washington Trip," "A Salute to Rogers and Hammerstein," "A Halloween Witch's Brew," and "An American Thanksgiving." Two huge public concerts sponsored by a local bank drew crowds of up to 3,000, and special guest conductors included Dr. Paul Yoder, Richard Elliott, Charles Ulrey, and Phil Elliott. Planned for the latter part of the year are a contest concert and a combined spring concert with the Concert Chorus. The band also plans a trip to the state contest in Tampa in May.

Tornadoes" In High Gear

The 100-Piece "Marching Tornado" Band poses in front of U. S. Capitol on "Biggest" Trip.

Last April, the climax of years of hard work and sparkling honors came for the 100 members of the band and majorettes as they took a five day educational trip to Washington, D. C. and Winchester, Virginia. The band members, parents, and the whole community toiled all year to raise the necessary funds, and the trip finally became a ne'er-to-be-forgotten experience. While in Washington, the concert band played a full concert at the U. S. Naval School of Music and did extensive sightseeing. During their stay, the group travelled over the Skyline Drive into the beautiful Shenandoah Valley to Winchester for the Annual Apple Blossom Festival. Both appearances were enthusiastically received by large audiences. In the pictures above, Congressman Paul Rogers is shown greeting the band and its chaperones. Headquarters for the band was the famous Shoreham Hotel.

Allan H. Drake, Band Director

The band's prize-winning entry in the Homecoming Parade was enhanced by pretty Bonnie Beard sitting atop the big Lincoln. Helping out were Mary Martin, Ruth Blackard, Pat Halliwell, Bob Owers, Patsy Dugan, and Bob Schultz.
